MATAMORAS.

The Literary Social Club met this week at the home of Miss Sarah Knapp on Main street.

The L. A. Society held a special meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Wickham on Jefferson street.

The Busy Bees Society will meet on Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Nellie Westfall on Third street.

At Epworth church Sunday D. L.
Patterson of Port Jervis had charge of the services both morning and evening. There was a large attendance. Mr. Patterson gave a very interesting address.

Holy mass was celebrated at St.
Joseph's church both morning and evening on Sunday.

The funeral of little Arthur H.
Campbell, son of Arthur Campbell and wife, took place at his late home on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The Rev. W. E. Fouts, pastor of the Baptist church of Port Jervis, had charge of the services. The remains were enclosed in a pretty white casket. Very pretty flower pieces surrounded it. One, a pillow, with the inscription "Baby," was very pretty. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have the sympathy of their friends in Matamoras in the loss of their little one. The remains were laid at rest in Laurel Grove Cemetery.

Following are the pall bearers:
Masters Fred Dunker, Arthur Quick, George Washer and Jake Westfall.

The citizens of Matamoras are under great obligations to William Howlett for offering his services after every snow storm to go around on each street and make paths with his snow plow. We trust the citizens will compensate him in a handsome manner before the season closes.

Mrs. Bert Millspaugh of this village, who is taking treatment at a Philadelphia hospital, is somewhat improved.

Miss Freda Kessler, who took part in the entertainment of Carroll Post on Monday evening at their rooms, was presented with a handsome Prince Henry bouquet by Thomas Atwood immediately after she rendered her piano solo. Miss Hazel Hornbeck and Miss Agnes Wilkin gave piano selections also at the entertainment.

George Sawyer, superintendent of the Pike county schools, has returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where he has been taking treatment for some time. The trip was very beneficial to him.

Miss Lulu Prescott, a teacher at Washingtonville, N. J., is at her home on Washington street for a short vacation.

The L. C. U. met this week at the home of Mrs. Horace Dana on Jefferson street.

Rev. and Mrs. Gross and their two daughters, Naomi and Lottie, left Matamoras on Wednesday.
They will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sampson in Port Jervis. Today they go to their new home at Shamokin, Pa. Their many friends in Matamoras regret their departure.

The Blue Ribbon lodge of Hope church gave Rev. Mr. Gross, their pastor, a very pleasant surprise at his home Monday evening. Mr.
Gross received his young friends in a very pleasant manner and was very much surprised, but he entertained them very nicely with refreshments. Various games were played and good music was enjoyed.
The Lodge tendered Mr. Gross two very pretty presents, a lemonade set of green and white glass and a lot set of blue china. Miss Elva Walker, president of the lodge, presented the lemonade set and Miss May Nyce presented the tea set.
Mr. Gross responded in a very feeling manner. He hoped to meet them all again at some future time.
Everyone had a very pleasant time.

Miss Clara Heintzel, a trained nurse from New York, is home on a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. Heiden that, on Pennsylvania avenue.

Asthma

"One of my daughters had a terrible case of asthma. We tried almost everything, but without result. We then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and three or four bottles cured her." — Emma Jane Estimating, Langville, Va.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures many cases of asthma.

And it cures bronchitis, hoarseness, weak lungs, whooping-cough, croup, winter coughs, night coughs, and hard colds.

There is no other remedy so effective and so safe as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for asthma, cough, croup, whooping-cough, and hard colds.

Mrs. M. Williams of Rowland, Pa., was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Cornelius Bils, this village.

Miss Anna Bils, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. Bils, met with an accident coming home from Port Jervis a few days ago. She fell in a snow bank and injured her hand.

Miss Daisy Bogardus of Sydney, N. Y., is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. N. Lawrence on Jefferson street.

The C. E. S. gave an entertainment at Present's Hall on Tuesday evening, March 19th. It was a comedieta entitled "Aunt Jenny's Quitting Party." All those taking part in it were dressed in the garb of their grandmothers' time.

The Rev. C. T. Weidner of Bethlehem, Pa., the new pastor of Hope church, will arrive in Matamoras on Saturday, March 14, and preach on the following Sunday.

A party of young society people, numbering in all about 14, went on a sleighride to Milford Friday evening. Tim Shay furnished the sleigh. They spent the evening at the Crissan in House. Mr. Nilla, the proprietor of the hotel, gave the guests a very fine supper. Some of the gentlemen of the party were musicians and they furnished music for dancing. Everyone had a most enjoyable time and all reached home in safety in the early hours of the morning. Friends from Germantown and Port Jervis were in the party.

SANDYSTON.

Milford must be a mighty peaceable borough when they pay the magnificent salary of $12 a month for a special policeman. The last time I was in that borough I did not see any body on the streets, only dogs, and likely this special has to keep them in order, but $12 is pretty small for even that duty.

Our solons at Trenton are putting a patch here and there on our game laws and in all probability the laws will be more of a nuisance than they were before. If they will only pass a law forbidding the sale of game, would be just what many of our sportsmen would wish and that would stop our pot-hunters.

Mr. Rambler, you are away off.
We did look up a man for the alleged killing of a quail but as near as I learn can no proof was made that any quail was killed at all. Just you come over to Montague and you will soon find out more than I can tell you.

Already loads of furniture are seen pass through our streets enroute to their future place of residence.
Among them I notice Geo. Williams to house of Chas. Major near Hainesville, Romain Bensley of Dingmans to the Mrs. Cross place near Bevans, Charles Bensley from Cross farm to that of R. H. Everitt, Len. Ellett from Everitt farm to farm of Manning Hotel, Peter Brink from Hotelien farm to the property recently bought by him of W. C. Elnen-dorf in Montague, William Titman from Dr. Cole farm at Layton to his hotel at Bevans, J. A. Westbrook of Bevans goes somewhere across the mountain.

The bridge across the Flatbrook near Alfred Bevans has been badly damaged by the recent flood and is unsafe for travel. The people of Bevans and vicinity have to come around by Layton if they wish to go to Branchville or Newton.

Many who come to the postoffice to get their mail do not fully appreciate the amount of exposure experienced by our mail carrier in getting it through on some of the terrible days we have had. All thanks to Chan-cely Watson, our carrier, for his faithfulness in not missing a trip, and Jim Hotelien, too.

Hazel Smith, merchant at Bevans, is seriously ill of appendicitis.
An operation was performed on Friday evening last and latest accounts say he is slowly improving.

In a visit to the schools of this town one school was found with no pupils at all, and another with only two, and yet the combined cost of these schools is over $80 per month.
Consolidation is what is needed and should have been done years ago and taxpayers will think so, too, when they count the cost.

Tuesday was town meeting and beyond a sharp brush for the office of Justice of the peace and clerk, there was little excitement, not enough to bring out a full vote. Those elected are:

Town Clerk—John Bevan.
Justice of the Peace—Martin V.
Warner, Warren C. Harsh.

Committee—Elijah Rosenkrans, Constable—Manning Hotelien.
Surveyors of Highway—Daniel Citer, John B. Stevens.
Commissioner of Appeal—Dennis Abers.

Pound Keeper—Daniel Abers.
Committee's estimate of road money for 1902—$1400.

Shoveling snow—16 cents per hour.

Town meeting and election of 1902 at Peters Valley.

GREENTOWN.

It is probably somewhat uninteresting to the general reader to hear much about the weather but its extremes keep other subjects down and most business at a standstill.

While looking out over the country through the movable windows, the printed page, and noting the widespread damage done to houses, churches, bridges and property of all kinds and looking down through the Lackawanna and Susquehanna valleys and seeing men, women and children chased from their homes by the rising waters and plunging ice only to be driven back to their damp and racked houses, we are thankful to know that our houses are a few feet above high water.

After the water had gone down the bridge at Greentown was found to be pretty badly bent on one side.

Prof. Cressy's visit to Newfoundland has been postponed and as it is in the interest of the Hopedale library we wish it hearty success but see no reason why we cannot find such an educational centre consisting of a graded school with a competent instructor to teach the higher branches and a good library containing an encyclopaedia and other works of reference in our own country and district.

One of the schools made use of the declining sleighing on Monday of this week. We think a day off is beneficial to the boys and girls after months of hard study and regular attendance. Even the sleigh shoes were brighter because of the trip.

Howard Cross of this place has gone to Gunnison county, Colorado, to be in the employ of George Dil-worth.

LEDGEDALE.

Mrs. R. H. Simons of East Side, Hamilton, was the guest of her son, Friend, on Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Thomas Gillet and Charles Kellam were in Honesdale last Friday.

Born, to George McNamara and wife, March 5th, 1902, a son.

High water did much damage to Wayne and Pike counties at this place, the Hawley road being impassable from here to the H. E. Kipp place, now occupied by Henry Simons. The B. K. Bortree bridge is gone for the second time this winter.
The Bortree and Krieger flats are entirely covered with ice.

Friend Simons has had a telephone put in at his place, which makes three on No. 5 line, the others being O. E. Simons and I. K. Kellam, who have had them for over two years. The telephone from Crosses to Henry Simon's place was out of order for over a week.

Get the Best.

People that buy are entitled to the best and in the long run the best is the cheapest. When you go to a drugstore to get some cough medicine ask for Mother's Worm Syrup, the nicest tasting and quickest cure for coughs and colds, and a proven remedy for consumption. Read testimonials on wrapper around a twenty-five cent bottle.

Ignorance No Good Excuse.

A mother has no right to be ignorant of symptoms that tell as plain as day her child has worms.
She should know when the child is pale, looks sickly, acts tired, seems peevish, has sunken eyes and a nervous expression, that worms are the cause. A safe, unflinching and nice tasting remedy is Mother's Worm Syrup. Only twenty-five cents a bottle, and so good that children ask for more.

Good Health.

A person generally enjoys good health, whose bowels are accustomed to easy evacuation each morning.
If bilious or constipated, use Gooch's Mexican Root Pills. They help but never gripe or weaken.

The Happy Man.

The happy man is he who knows what he ought to know, and who knowing Gooch's Quick Relief cures internal aches and external pains, insists on his druggists keeping it for sale. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Blood Poison.

As the violence of blood poison increases, sores may break out anywhere, every nerve and bone may ache, the skin peel off in patches, the hair fall out, and the nervous system become shattered. The use of Gooch's Sarsaparilla will at once lessen the activity of the disease, and eventually drive it entirely out of the system. Buy a bottle and read the many testimonials of cures printed on its wrapper.
